Guests can savor flavors shaped by the bounty of the four seasons and the skill of the artisan.

SANKEI Kaiseki

Incorporating the finest ingredients of the season, SANKEI Kaiseki offers different courses at the counter and the dining room. At the counter, guests can watch the chefs’ delicate handiwork up close and enjoy their meal along with conversation. A carefully drawn dashi broth, blending katsuobushi (dried bonito) and maguro-bushi (dried tuna) in an original ratio, is used in clear soups and other dishes. Every plate is crafted with attention not only to flavor but also to color and dimension.

SANKEI Sushi

At a counter featuring kumiko latticework that evokes Hakone’s traditional crafts, guests can savor Edomae sushi alongside the sushi chef’s craft. A single omakase course is offered, with each piece carefully prepared from seasonal seafood.

SANKEI Teppanyaki

SANKEI Teppanyaki centers on Japanese Kuroge Wagyu, including Matsusaka beef, as well as seafood from Sagami Bay. In addition to the iron griddle, it is equipped with a charcoal grill, cooking each ingredient in the way that best brings out its flavor.
